(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

"Paradise" is the endearing name given to a beautiful stretch of the Don, close to Tilliefoure. The river flows through most charming scenery, and it is easy to realise the attraction felt for the spot by H.M. Queen Victoria, who twice drove hither from Balmoral (50 miles distant), and picnicked under the shelter of the lovely beeches.

Printed in England.

Heard you were at my Uncles the other Sunday night—Ind. I saw you were coming and I would have stayed all though I would be putting in as I understand you had Martha Rose to Newark and 73 Boulton Street work.
